“Renewed Petition under 37 CFR 1.137 (b)”

In response to the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment (37 CFR 1.121). Mail Date July 17, 2009

RE: Application # 09/888,554 ✓

INVENTION TITLE

“Checkout Counter Customer Product Purchase Divider Adapted to Receive Electronics For Interactive Retail Transaction Functions” (Note: Title Amended in this Renewed Petition Application)

In response to your letter mailed July 17, 2009 I have enclosed the Amended Drawings showing Identification and Amendment Notifications as required by 37 CFR 1.121 (d). This address the required corrections 3(a) in the non-compliant corrections letter.

A Provisional Patent was also filed on June 21, 2000 with 14 pages of specifications and 14 pages of drawings. The Provisional Patent Number Assigned is 60/214545. The claims and specifications reflect the current claims and specifications of the current non-provisional application and amended application. Please refer to the Provisional patent if necessary to identify dates of claims and claims themselves. A non-provisional patent was filed on June 24, 2001. On June 12, 2009 a Petition Was Granted for Reinstatement of The Application.

I have meant the qualifications for Application Reinstatement. My original application included a wider range of applications such as incorporating a portable product scanning system and wireless weight and enabled the mobile use in stores of the patent product. The original examiner cited Tracy, et al. as a conflict over prior art. In my arguments in this petition I have stated the difference between Tracy, et al. and the weight given to the actual grocery or product divider. I think this makes a unique and improved product and does not infringe into the prior art of Tracy, et al.. Developing a new and improved grocery and product divider is a unique item Please let me know if I can expand my application as to include some items and claims contained in my first application and Provisional application.

I am mailing the entire corrected package under “Renewed Petition Under 37 CFR 1.137(b)” Revised Amendment Practice”, and the “Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment” letter dated July 17, 2009, not knowing what you may require.

Sincerely,

Steven M. Senn
